Sewerage Ordered South of Ave. E More Revenue Seen At Low City Cost

Belle Glade City Commissioners Wednesday approved a recommendation from City Manager C. B. Talmadge to extend sewerage to certain areas south of South Avenue E. The expenditure of $600 for manholes plus the city's labor would produce no less than $2,600 more revenue annually, Talmadge said.

The city's plan is to sewer an area from S. W. 4th St. to S. W. 8th St. to connect users on the south side of Ave. E. as well as a large number of users in the area of the sewerage plant between 4th and 8th.

Talmadge also reported that all work in laying sewer lines from Main St. to S. W. 4th St. on Ave. E. to allow more than 30 large apartments to connect to the system.

Also reported work in laying sewer lines without constructing additional lift stations in a third major system of the sewerage plant.

In other action the council learned that the State of Florida had approved the release of funds to construct a larger pump and a 100,000 gallon water storage tank north of Belle Glade to supply Glades State Prison Farm with an adequate water supply.

Manager Vacancy F. A. Simmons Is Council Topic

South Bay Councilmen tonight will consider action on applications for the vacant city clerk position which becomes vacant April 1 following the resignation of City Manager L. E. Caruthers.

Caruthers said the special session business would include some 14 applications for the job. City Attorney Claude Jones revealed that former Belle Glade city manager, C. E. Robinson, now living in Maine, said in a letter to the council that he "might be interested" in applying for the job.

At the last regular meeting Thursday councilmen passed their first reading an ordinance to update their voting registration statutes.

They also approved the purchase of about 100 yards of clay to replace and expand the baseball diamond at the city park.

The donation was paid over a period of ten years at $100 per year to the benefit of a scholarship fund administered by the national group.

The fund contains $8 million, and only the interest is used each year for scholarships. Four hundred and ten scholarships were awarded last year ranging in amounts of $750 to $1,400.

Rams Post Win; Face Lake Worth
The Belle Glade High School Rams won their second straight basketball victory over Forest Hill High Tuesday, 64-4 with Ron Hudspeeth getting the pitching victory. The ten players who played Lake Worth here Friday at 4 p. m.

Belle Glade picked up two runs in the first inning with three hits. In the second frame Matthews walked and then scored with Lutz doubling.

The Rams picked up three more in the fourth inning on two Forest Hill errors, two singles and a double.

With the score 6-0 in the seventh inning, an error, single and walk loaded the sacks. Hudspeeth was relieved of mound duty when Rene Brown pitched to score three of his mates. Homer Francis came on, but Brown scored from third on a fly out.

Almost daily contacts are being made by The Herald, our city's chamber of commerce and realtors in the area from people with cash to rent or buy in our city. The present trend toward suburban living coupled with the rapid overall growth of our state has led our city out of the "small town" class into a growing metropolitan area.

New stores, store fronts, additional business ventures by our hometown merchants and businessmen plus the location of national chain-stores in Belle Glade point to the ability of these local entrepreneurs and managers to best serve this area.

Their activity expresses a greater desire to serve you better, and to serve you with convenience and modern style. Your shopping is made easier with the location of new lighting fixtures, spacious counters and windows for displays of merchandise.

Much of the income of any business is turned over to our city in the form of licenses, fees and taxes for the operation of these businesses. The taxes revert to the public in the form of better water and sewerage systems; more recreational facilities; and in this sense become a drawing card in our municipal and area economic circle.

Belle Glade, with its great fishing and recreational potential, good schools, churches and modern home building program, is attracting and will continue to attract more business and more residents.

In turn, more goods and services will become available to the consumer at the local level. If people will only figure the incidental costs and pseudo-conveniences occasioned by sending out of town for goods that can be purchased in the Glades, they will see that there is no way to secure goods for a less figure than they can be supplied by the experienced business man of the Glades.

Double Sessions For Claims Court
Next Small Claims Court hearing in the Glades Office Building will be Mar. 31 with 45 dockets scheduled, according to Mrs. Mae Pope, Glades Office Building manager. A second hearing has been set for 50 dockets on Apr. 7 for cases filed the first week of March. This is the second time since small claims hearings began at the Glades Office Building that there will be double sessions, Mrs. Pope said.

Since filing began in the Glades, 468 cases have been filed. The office was closed here, many are heard which were originally filed at West Palm Beach.

At the crowded on the coast, too. The possibility of a second small claims court judge has been considered.

Registration Books Close Apr. 2 At Glades Bldg.
Voter registration books close Apr. 2 at Glades Office Building, according to Mrs. Mae Pope, hearing manager. The office will be open daily 8:30 a. m. until 5 p. m. and will remain open the same hours on Apr. 2, for the convenience of the public.

Permanent voting records are now on hand at the Glades Office Building, she said, after having been brought by Registrar Dewitt Upthegrove.

A large number of new registrants have already qualified to vote. Qualification requires one year's residency in the state and six months in a county; then sign up!

First Glades Heart Clinic Will Be Held This A. M.
First session of the newly-created heart clinic will be held today 8-10 a. m. at Belle Glade Memorial Hospital under the supervision of Dr. J. H. Secor, administrative and medical staff of the Palm Beach-Martin County Heart Association, according to Mrs. Mae Pope, hearing manager. The clinic will be a weekly event, and patients must be referred to the clinic by county welfare officials after referral to the welfare department by their doctor.

New School Zone Met With Favor

"Everything has been favorable up to now," commented Belle Glade Police Chief Charles Goodlett about the change in the school zone distances during the past week.

Goodlett said he hadn't heard outside comment about the new 300-foot-long zones. Most motorists smiled as they passed the zone, he said.

Goodlett said he appreciated the fact that drivers recognized the school zone and even drove the 15 mph where the former zone had been.

Concession From SRD
State Representative Emmett S. Roberts, Belle Glade, said this week that the State Road Department had promised to erect "Caution, Deep Canal" signs along SR 80 west of Twenty-mile Bend and to paint white roadside lines in the same area.

He got the concession at SRD meeting at Ft. Lauderdale Monday, he said.

Salute to FLORIDA COUNTIES

WAKULLA COUNTY
County Seat, Crawfordville

Excellent fishing and hunting attract many tourists to Wakulla County. In fact, commercial fishing and tourism comprise the main source of income... in addition to agriculture and timber. Most of the county's 288,900 acres of forest lands are embraced by the Apalachicola National Forest. Scenic Wakulla Springs is a world-wide attraction. It boils up from limestone formations and covers an area of more than four acres. Some sources claim this famous spring inspired the name "Wakulla"—an Indian word meaning "mystery".

In progressive Wakulla County and throughout Florida, the United States Brewers Foundation works constantly to maintain the sale of beer and ale under pleasant, orderly conditions. Believing that strict law enforcement serves the best interest of the people of Florida, the Foundation stresses close cooperation with the Armed Forces, law enforcement and governing officials.

Special Election Year Series

YOUR CANDIDATE

The year 1960 has been termed one of Florida's most important election years. From the governor's race to the smallest county office, a bevy of candidates announce their intentions to the public. Through this series, The Herald will introduce the readers to the various aspirants between now and election time.

Hugh Brown, Chief of Police in Boca Raton for the past 23 years, has announced his candidacy for the office of Sheriff of Palm Beach County in the Democratic primary May 31. When asked why he chose to run for the top law enforcement post in the county, Brown stated: "In view of the tremendous cost of operating the present Sheriff's Department to the taxpayers of Palm Beach County, I believe the time has come for administrative ability and efficiency to be applied to this branch of county government."

Brown is a Florida native of Nassau County. More than half of his life has been devoted to law enforcement work. His development of the Boca Raton Police force into an efficient organization is attested by the fact this community has one of the lowest crime rates, per capita, of any community in the nation.

His Accomplishments

Chief Brown is proud of the fact that every man in his department has undergone special training, included in this group as a graduate of the F. B. I. National Academy in Washington, D. C. Several officers have certificates from the Federal Bureau of Investigation short course, also three Miami Police Academy graduates, and Florida Police Academy graduates.

In making this announcement Chief Brown declared: "If elected, I pledge honest, efficient and courteous law enforcement to the people of Palm Beach County."

During the tenure of Chief Brown, Boca Raton has grown from a community of 784 persons to a population of over 9,500 individuals. His department has kept pace with the growth, increasing from two men in 1937 to 18 officers today.

Personal
Brown is married and has three children. He is a member of the P. T. A., Delray Beach Elks Lodge, F. & A. M., Boca Raton 329, Scottish Rite, Lake Worth, Mahi Shrine Temple, Gold Coast Shrine Club and President of the Boca Raton Kiwanis Club, past officer and active member in the Boca Raton Police Benevolent Association. He and his family are members of the 1st Methodist Church in Boynton Beach.

Police work has placed Chief Brown in close association with many national and state as well as local organizations. He is a member of the International Association of Police Chiefs, Police Chiefs and Sheriffs Association, Florida Peace Officers Association, Fraternal Order of Police, in Lake Worth, Florida. Police Chiefs Association, and the Tri-County (Dade, Broward, Palm Beach) Intelligence Unit.

Election Series Special:

Earwood And Carpenter Vie In District Four School Board Primary Contest

A political race of particular importance to Glades voters for the May 3 primary is that of the District Four School Board featuring Democrats Henry O. Earwood and Milton O. Carpenter.

Earwood seeks his third term as board member, while Carpenter, just entered the school administrative field last year when he beat incumbent A. R. Harrington for the school trustee post of this area.

Following is a rundown of accomplishments and history of the two candidates along with initial statements concerning their intentions.

Earwood

A resident of Belle Glade since 1943, Earwood was employed by USDA in the migratory labor program. He served since Co., and is also engaged in his cattle business.

Earwood says: "If re-elected I shall continue to conduct the business affairs of the county school system with the same sincere good purpose, in the same dignified manner, in which I have practiced during the past eight years. The recent survey is indicative to the huge problems that will be faced by this school board during the next four years. It will be my desire to face these problems realistically with the welfare of the children of Palm Beach County as well as the taxpayers uppermost in my mind."

Service
Earwood has been president of the Belle Glade Chamber of Commerce and served on that board of directors for eight years. During his term as president of the local Lions Club, their cattle project was started. He is also a member of Elks Lodge No. 273 F. & A. M. He served two years as school trustee before his election to the school board.

Honors

He is a member of the Florida Educational Association; served on state wide committees of that organization; is member of the Continuing Education Council of Florida, representing the State School Board Assn.; is immediate past president of the State School Board Assn.; is now vice president of the South-eastern State School Board Assn.; is a member of the ethics committee of the National School Board Assn.

Personal

Mrs. Earwood is an art teacher at Belle Glade; the Earwoods have a daughter who completed high school at Belle Glade and attended FSU. A niece, Grace Earwood, is residing with the Earwoods now while she attends school.

Carpenter

Milton O. Carpenter has been a resident of Belle Glade for the past five years; he is associated with his father in the Carpenter Insurance Agency, Inc., Pahokee. A native of Pahokee, Carpenter attended elementary and high school there then attended University of Florida and Massachusetts Trade School at Boston.

Carpenter says: "In announcing my candidacy . . . I would like to express my sincere thanks to my many friends, the voters of Palm Beach County, for the confidence they recently placed in me by electing me as one of their trustees in our school system.

Service
Carpenter served two years in the Navy (1946-47); he is a Belle Glade Elks Club officer; member of Masonic Lodge 273, F. & A. M.; is Troup Councilman for Troop 622 at Belle Glade.

Personal
The Carpenters have two sons. One is a welder and the other is a machinist. They are both employed by the Palm Beach County Board of Public Instruction. The Palm Beach County Board of Public Instruction is a multi-million dollar business with an annual budget of approximately 20 million dollars. This business must be supported by the taxpayers of Palm Beach County. Careful consideration should be given to the men we select

Peace Justice District Jurisdiction Is Upheld By Criminal Court Judge

Circuit Court Judge Russell Morrow Thursday ruled that the District 7 and 8 Peace Justice still had "Concurrent" Criminal jurisdiction to try misdemeanors' cases with the criminal court.

The action ended some speculation that the peace justice districts would lose their power before their offices officially ceased to exist in accordance with the results of a recent referendum which would abolish the courts in January, 1961.

The peace justice authority applies to penalties of not more than $100 fines and 90 days in jail.

The decision came about as the result of a sentence by a peace justice in the Glades against Albert Hollin, a prisoner in the county jail. Hollin was arrested on two charges and was sentenced to 180 days in jail, or 90 days on each charge. Through the man's attorney, Hollin questioned the authority of the peace justices in the courts.

Morrow's ruling included the statement that the constitution does not use the word exclusive

Legion Election Will Be May 3rd

With the appointment of a nominating committee at the last regular meeting of Everglades American Legion Post 20, post members were reminded of the forthcoming election of officers for the 1960-61 year, according to Post Commander Randolph Livingston.

With Ralph Freeman, chairman, on the committee are J. B. Jones, L. E. Will, George P. Farnall and the commander.

Floor nominations will be taken at the Apr. 19 meeting, and election of officers will be May 3, Commander Livingston said.

In a sideline announcement, the commander strenuously urged that those Legionnaires who had not paid their 1960 dues please do so immediately. He said that Legionnaires should remain active with their post since there's strength in numbers.

Legion dues can be paid to Adjutant, Francis T. Gay or Ralph Freeman or other officer of the post. In order to determine national convention voting strength, convention seating and parade position at Miami Beach, all dues must be turned in not later than Mar. 28. District voting strength deadline will be Apr. 11 for all memberships. The district conference will be at Okeechobee on Apr. 24.

Belle Rebekahs Host To District

A district No. 21 meeting of Rebekahs was held at the Community Club House with members from Golden Links Lodge No. 64, Lake Worth, Garden Lodge No. 171 and Hibiscus Lodge 66 of West Palm Beach present. Mrs. Betty Pitts presided as noble grand.

Mrs. Leona Thompson, District Deputy President and her officers were in charge of the business session of the meeting. Each lodge gave a report on its activities for the past year. The hall was decorated with arrangements of spring flowers and the club colors of pink and green were carried out in the refreshments of cake and punch served.

In honor of St. Patrick's Day, a shamrock with a number was pinned on each member, as they came in and the person having the lucky number received the door prize. Miniature homemade baskets filled with candy and nuts, were passed among the members and on the back of the shamrock was a number. This number was the amount of change donated by that person for the District Ways and Means.

Now That You Put It That Way . . .

Definition of a small business: One that has never been investigated by a Congressional Committee.

Serious Need For Sidewalks

Now that the merchants along Avenue A and the shoppers have pretty, new, neat sidewalks on which to place their dollar-spending feet, there might quite logically be some consideration given to the necessity of sidewalks in other sections of our city.

Belle Glade police, with the cooperation of school officials, are conducting a campaign to teach children to walk on sidewalks when they walk to and from school.

To accompany this training, it would be completely practical to provide sidewalks on which the pedestrians could practice their newly-instilled sense of safety.

Narrow asphalt paths overgrown with grass, marked lanes on streets and walkways that double as bridle paths will certainly get the job done, and if that's the best we can do, we'll get by.

It does; however, seem archaic compared to other realities of a modern progressing municipality to use such facilities. Sidewalks are more than a convenience. They are also walkways of greater safety.

Remarks About A Commissioner

Somebody made the remark that someone should have opposed our incumbent county commissioner from the Glades in the coming primary and election in order that the area could receive its share of the "politician" favors.

Joke that it was, there is an underlying fact to this situation which should be mentioned about that commissioner or any other public servant who is unopposed in a contest, be it a sack race or the governor's chair.

There must be some intended compliment to a man's ability, his manner of public service or to him as an individual when no one opposes him. There have been times in the past when such a county commissioner has incurred the wrath of a great many voters because of his actions in certain matters. Well, what public official hasn't?

That a man should be successful at the voting polls repeatedly, then face no opposition in an uncontested, must undoubtedly single a great amount of public confidence. Our congratulations.

Why A Chamber Of Commerce?

Cities are not kept alive and built by water power, horse power or candle power, but by man power. Not by natural resources, but by human resources.

Cities grow and prosper when their citizenship combine the natural and human resources, realize the potential possibilities and continually tell the good news of their community; when they pull and pull together results follow just as surely as day light follows night. This is your community. The sort of community it is and becomes is up to you. Results require organization. Energy and enthusiasm can work wonders, but only when properly coordinated, concentrated and directed.

Your association is your community's clearing house. Unceasingly and uselessly, week in and week out, year after year for the best interests of the community and its citizenry, as a whole.

This association is you and your neighbors and co-workers banded together to build and better the community.

The degree to which the association can serve you is just the degree of support you give it. Its power is measured by its membership. If you are interested in seeing this community continue to have representation in all matters and measures pertaining to the districts protection, progress and property, if you desire the community to have a central, constantly alert and alive service bureau, you should belong to this association and see that your neighbors and friends and co-workers also join.

TRADER, IOWA, STAR-CLIPPER: "How a fool and his money get separated is no puzzle compared with how they ever get together in the first place."

Cancer Month Set To Begin April 1 "Guard Your Family" Is 1960 Slogan

For the second year, "Guard Your Family" will be the campaign slogan for the annual Cancer Crusade which starts April 1.

The family theme will again be linked with the life-saving phrase, "Flight Cancer with a Checkup and a Check," according to Mrs. Jane Cook, president of the Palm Beach County Unit of the American Cancer Society.

"The combined slogan was very effective last year," she said, and it helped to alert the families of Palm Beach County to the silent ways of cancer and to methods of safeguarding the family against the hazards of this disease.

Mrs. Cook also credited the slogan with helping to raise more than $50,000 last year, which was substantially more than the minimum goal sought by Crusade volunteers.

Last year's national campaign was the most successful in the Society's history, Mrs. Cook said. "No ceiling was set on the amount of money needed, and none is set for the 1960

Deadline Nears Homestead Tax

County Tax Assessor David Stewart has announced that the assessor's office, Room 201, County Court House, will be open Saturday, Mar. 26, and again Tuesday, Mar. 29 until 5 p. m. to receive applications for Homestead Exemption.

The office is being kept open to accommodate people who cannot come to the Court House during the regular office hours. Deadline for filing for the exemption (once or renewal) is Mar. 31 and everyone is urged to file before that date.

You are eligible for this exemption if you meet the following requirements as of Jan. 1 of any year:

1. You are a permanent resident of Florida usually provided by being registered to vote or by filing a declaration of domicile and citizenship in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court.

2. You own your home or have equity in it.

3. You live in your home and it is your permanent residence to the exclusion of all other places.

Get the right information: Call the county tax assessor's office for complete information if you have any question. According to Stewart, your friends mean well, but it could cost you more than $100 in one year.

Homestead exemption will save additional money on city taxes.

Special Series: Income Tax Fax

You can deduct all the expenses you incur in the collection or in the production of taxable income, including all the expenses of determining your tax liability, or contesting your tax liability, and this includes all kinds of taxes.

This section provides that an individual who has elected to itemize his deductions shall be allowed a deduction for all the ordinary and necessary expenses paid or incurred during the taxable year for the production or collection of income, or for the management, conservation, or maintenance of property held for the production of income, in connection with the determination, collection, or refund of any tax.

"Other deductions" is the catch-all for the many non-business deductions which are too numerous for separate scheduling on Page 2 of Form 1040. Principal among these are the unreimbursed expenses of employees (other than outside salesmen) for clerical help, stationery, business entertainment, union dues, uniforms, tools and supplies, subscriptions to professional journals, etc.

Other expenses which are deductible here are employment agency fees, amounts paid for the preparation of an income tax return, employees bond premiums and periodic alimony payments made to a divorced or separated spouse pursuant to a divorce, a decree of separate maintenance or a separation agreement.

Commuting between your home and your place of employment is not considered a cost of earning your income and is not deductible.

Uncle Dan From Democrat River

Dear Mister Editor:

Me and my old lady was going to church Sunday morning and I had to drive 10 mile a hour for about two mile behind a fool woman driver on account of not being able to get into her. I finally passed her just as we had to stop after getting into the highway, giving her a mighty mean look as I at the highway, stuck her head out the window and hollered "if you're going to church, get in a better humor!" It shore did make me feel cheaper a wood nickel.

They want's many folks at church on account of a little rain and the preacher started off by saying it was a funny thing to him how 50 drops of rain could keep 100 folks from church. It got him in a bad humor and he worked the congregation over good, especially them that was absent. He finally got on the subject of people being money crazy and allowed as how the pore and humble and ignorant would git to heaven first. I been humble and ignorant all my life, but I ain't never been able to work up any great joy over the blessings of poverty. Just between me and you, Mister Editor, that woman hollered a better sermon out the window in 10 words than our preacher give us in a hour and 10 minutes. I reckon preachers, like everybody else, has their off days.

Well, the tax assessor was out our way sneaking around last week, which is mighty bad in a election year. But I found out a long time ago it gits you no place to argue with a tax assessor. His mind was made up afore he ever looked at your propiety, maybe afore he got out of bed that morning. Arguing with them tax tellers is worse than arguing with a woman, which is about like trying to read the newspaper in a high wind. I give up on the fair case when we got girl bull fighters and wimmen rasslers, and when the tax assessor got to measuring the pitch of my barn roof, I sold my herd and got me a rocking chair. Them cannibals out on that island in the Pacific has got the only fool-proof solution I've ever saw for the tax situation. They eat the tax collector.

My old lady come home this morning from shopping and got out her old trunk and started counting her Great-Grandpa's Confederate money. I was curious but didn't let on I was nosing. Wimmen is funny that way and sometimes they git more information if you just keep quiet. But I finally give up and ask her what she was doing with that Confederate money. She said she had just decided that Confederate money was worth about the same as U. S. money and she wanted to see how much she had.

week, which is mighty bad in a election year. But I found out a long time ago it gits you no place to argue with a tax assessor. The Gulf Stream Council's Golden Anniversary Camporee will take place this weekend March 25, 26, 27 at Boy Scout Camp, Tanah-Keeta where hundreds of scouts and leaders will participate in the first wilderness type camporee to be held in recent years.

Belle Glade will have two troops of Boy Scouts participating in the camporee. Troop 822 sponsored by the Everglades Presbyterian Church plans for 15 boys to attend with R. H. Lewis, scout master and Charles Haines, assistant scout master.

Troop 622 sponsored by the Methodist Men, expects to have about 20 scouts in attendance according to Clarence Kidder, assistant scout master.

Part of the year-long 50th Anniversary of boy scouting, this year's camporee features "pack light" camping with all troops carrying in their gear in one trip, neatly packed, in an activity intended to simulate the sort of encampment which could be set up at the end of a hike.

The "pack light" style of camping is rapidly becoming a lost art as our nation's two largest camping groups, the armed forces and the boy scouts of America tend to follow the "modern" trend toward mechanization. The coming of the station wagon has changed the average camping style of the American public, but it makes remote places much more private for those who have the equipment, skill and energy to "pack light" and walk in.

Scouts by troops will converge from every corner of the council beginning on Friday afternoon. They are asked by the camporee committee this year to plan their arrival with sufficient remaining daylight to allow them to clear and set up their campsites. Many troops will plan to arrive Saturday morning. The camping competition will be judged and scored

Prescott Recognized For Outstanding Work

Ralph Prescott of Belle Glade, agency representative for Life Insurance Company of Georgia, has been designated to attend his company's 1960 convention at the Hotel Manhattan in New York, April 10-13.

Recognized for his outstanding record of sales and services to policyholders during 1959, Mr. Prescott will attend the convention as a member of the President's Club, the top honor organization. Along with other representatives from Life of Georgia's 11-state territory, Mr. Prescott will take part in seminars on insurance and hear discussions of his company's plans led by officials.

Mr. Prescott is vice president of the Everglades Life Underwriters Association and a member of the Lions Club, Masons, and the First Methodist Church. He lives at 608 S. E. 6th Street.

ed by a staff of eight judges, under the general direction of Mr. Anthony Carotenuto of Boynton Beach, and the field events will be set up and conducted by scouts of each district.

The camping competition will be scored on such points as packing in, choosing and setting up site, camp sanitation, shelter, safety, comfort and organization.

Field events will be scoutcraft contests in such fields as fire building, compass, knot tying, rope throwing, nature identification, judging unknowns, and even one event—a scent identification contest which is already referred to as a "real smellpoop."

Elected camporee chief by the camporee committee is Mr. Mike Maehck, Jr., Delray Beach. He will head the entire encampment and has called a special scout leaders meeting on the site at 10:30 a. m. Saturday morning.

All over the seven counties served by the Gulf Stream Council, scouts and leaders are mentally (and actually) weighing the food and equipment that must be carried in. Some units are planning to make palmetto thatched shelters, in lieu of packing heavy canvas tents. Dried and cured, smoked and canned foods are planned on patrol and troop menus. Water purification methods are being discussed by scout leaders, and senior patrol leaders are studying campsite selection and layout. There's a stirring of anticipation as the March lion continues to roar across the nation, the Gulf Stream Council camporee becomes the first scout harbinger of spring.

YOUR CANDIDATE

The year 1960 has been termed one of Florida's most important election years. From the governor's race to the smallest county office, a bevy of candidates announce their intentions to the public. Through this series, The Herald will introduce the readers to the various aspirants between now and election time.

Jesse H. Yarborough, long-time Dade County civic, Educational and Governmental leader, seeks the post of Florida Secretary of State.

Yarborough pledged to "use all the prestige and influence of the office of Secretary of State to end the evils of sectionalism, arrest the creeping development of big government, and effect every conceivable economy without hampering the efficient operation of our State Government."

Civilians Nominate At Today's Meeting

Belle Glade Civilians heard two-part program Mar. 21 when Girl Scout representatives presented a sketch of their activities, and Miss Carolyn Bitch, American Red Cross County Chapter Manager, also appeared to present a first aid demonstration.

The scouts talked about the various facets of their program, particularly about the program of the Senior Girl Scouts.

A demonstration of the new artificial respiration mouth-to-mouth method was seen.

Nominations for officers for the coming year were made last week, and more nominations will be heard today. The election of officers will be Mar. 31 although they won't be seated in their new positions until July 1.

It was also announced that Claxton Fruit Cakes were still available at W. T. Grant Co. here; proceeds benefit Civitan projects.

The action that won Sfc. Rosser's Congressional Award took place Jan. 12, 1952, in the vicinity of Ponggil-li, Korea, where he was serving as a forward observer from Heavy Mortar Company, with the lead platoon of Company L, 38th Infantry Regiment.

When the platoon was stopped by fierce automatic weapons small arms, artillery and mortar fire, Corporal Rosser turned his radio over to his assistant, and "disregarding enemy fire, charged the enemy position armed with only carbine and a grenade."

He received the Congressional Medal of Honor from President Harry S. Truman on June 27, 1952.

Now a Sergeant First Class, Rosser comes to West Palm Beach from the 101st Airborne Division at Fort Campbell, Ky. Having served in the Army from 1946 to 1949, part of the time with the 82nd Airborne Division, Rosser reenlisted in 1951 for Korean service after his brother was killed in Korea.

He was a member of the 19-man committee authorized by the 1955 legislature, which studied and made recommendations to Governor Collins on taxes in Florida for consideration by the 1957 legislature.

Yarborough, a real estate and zoning consultant, said he will make "a vigorous campaign in every corner of Florida to acquaint the people with my qualifications for this most important State Cabinet Post."

makes drafty rooms snug and comfortable... In fact, Gold Bond Twin insulation installed in your attic not only keeps your rooms warmer in winter; it also keeps them cooler in summer.
